About Us

Since 1965 CFC has provided high quality comprehensive early childhood education and care to eligible children of all abilities and their families. Head Start and Early Head Start believe the development of a young child is unique. Children enrolled in the programs are offered a variety of experiences allowing them to explore and discover. Our basic philosophy of learning through doing is carried out in all phases of the child's day. (License #212592)

Our Services

Head Start offers part-day part-year preschool classes in 7 locations and accepts child care voucher for our full-day, full-year classroom. We also have a Home Based preschool option which offers instruction in the home once per week as well as at the center one day per week.

Early Head Start offers Home Based services to expectant parents, infants and toddlers. Each family enrolled receives a weekly 90 minute home visit and attends a weekly Discovery Day.

Both Head Start and Early Head Start provide, health, nutrition, mental health, disabilities, and social services for children and families.

Limited school bus transportation and taxi vouchers are available for Fall River families who qualify
